

Negril

.....capital of casual – the unofficial headquarters for Jamaica’s fun-in-the-sun vacationers. Seven miles of unbroken white-sand beach, and five miles of majestic waterfront cliffs. There’s a world of water sports, some of the finest reggae performances you’ll find, good places to eat, and gathering spots to watch Jamaica’s most spectacular sunsets. But most people choose to just hang out, recharge their batteries, renew their spirits and take time to be themselves again. So wiggle your toes in the surf or sip a tropical drink while watching a golden sunset!

.....is the “Jewel of Negril”
